FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Timothy R. Franzen Joins Moss & Barnett

Minneapolis, Minnesota (December 28, 2011) – Moss & Barnett, A Professional Association, is pleased to announce that Timothy R. Franzen has joined the firm’s litigation practice group. Franzen assists clients with a variety of business issues, including contract, insurance, and employment disputes.

Franzen received his J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Minnesota Law School and was awarded the Order of the Coif. He received the ALI-ABA Scholarship and Leadership Award for his work in the classroom and in his various jobs, as well as for his work as a student editor for the faculty journal, Constitutional Commentary, and as the lead managing editor for the student-run journal, Journal of Law and Inequality. He received his B.A., summa cum laude, from the University of Minnesota, concentrating on professional journalism and political science. Prior to joining Moss & Barnett, Tim worked at the Minnesota Supreme Court clerking for Justices Paul H. Anderson, Barry Anderson, and David Stras. During law school, Tim worked at the University of Minnesota’s Office of the General Counsel and worked as a research assistant for Professor David Weissbrodt. Additionally, Tim advised clients in business matters as a student attorney at the University of Minnesota's Business Law Clinic

"We are excited to add an attorney of Tim Franzen's background and caliber to our team," said President and CEO, Tom Shroyer.
