FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Curtis D. Smith Awarded “Champions Award” by The American Subcontractors Association of Minnesota (ASA-MN)

Minneapolis (April 6, 2011) – Moss & Barnett is pleased to congratulate Curtis D. Smith who was awarded the “Champions Award” by the American Subcontractors Association of Minnesota (ASA-MN) at its 11th annual awards banquet held on January 27, 2011. This was the first time the “Champions Award” was awarded. It was conceived to recognize special individual members for their long-term work to enhance the business environment for subcontractors and for outstanding contributions to the ASA. Smith was a founding member of ASA-MN, served on its board of directors, has presented numerous educational programs, and was a key player in the enactment of the Contractors Bill of Rights statutes.

Smith is the Chair of Moss & Barnett’s litigation practice area. He specializes in construction law and civil litigation, including construction claims, insurance and surety law, mechanic’s liens, business litigation, business fraud litigation, and contract negotiation and disputes.
