

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Thomas A. Keller III, a member of our business law practice area, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Abbott Northwestern Hospital Foundation by the Minneapolis Heart Institute Foundation Board of Directors. Tom has served on the MHIF board for 25 years, including 10 years as board chair. MHIF is the research, education, and philanthropic arm of the Minneapolis Heart Institute and is a nationally recognized cardiovascular research and educational institution.

Jennifer A. Reussé, a member of our real estate practice area, currently serves as a member of the Business Council Committee of the Guthrie Theatre, a committee comprised of executives and emerging business leaders who volunteer their time and energy helping the Guthrie to cultivate and engage corporate donors.

Susan C. Rhode, a member of our family law practice area, has been elected to a three-year term as a trustee of the Courage Center Foundation. Courage Center is a nonprofit rehabilitation and resource center focusing on rehabilitation therapies, transitional rehabilitation, pain management, vocational and community based services, and camping and sports and recreation programs for people of all ages and abilities, in particular those with brain or spinal cord injuries and congenital disabilities.
